Hits Restraint of Trade

Sen. Goldwater Says Control Is Needed Over Large Unions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) said today that the United Auto Workers' strike and boycott against the Kohler Co. point up the need "for some control over huge unions that flout the law."

Goldwater, a member of the Senate Rackets Committee investigating the Kohler dispute, said labor groups should be brought under the federal anti-trust law. But he conceded there is no chance for passage of such legislation this year.

He said he did not even plan to introduce a labor anti-trust measure because there is not enough time left at this session of Congress for hearings on it.

Goldwater referred to efforts by the UAW to persuade city governments to bar use of plumbing fixtures made by the Sheboygan, Wis., firm in municipal projects.

When unions "come to the point of restraining trade," he said, Congress should take the same sort of anti-trust action that it did against corporations in 1914.

Committee Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) and some other committee members commented Friday that the UAW's boycott tactics, if not outlawed by the Taft-Hartley Law's ban on secondary boycotts, indicated a need for stronger legislation in this field.

The union claims its boycott was legal and did not violate the Taft-Hartley law.

The committee interrupted the Kohler hearing Friday for a preview of a future investigation of alleged shakedowns and collusion among unions, employer groups and gangsters in the Chicago area.

Anthony B. Champagne, a Chicago attorney, invoked the 5th Amendment to avoid giving the committee his financial records and answering questions about a restaurant strike.

He declined among other things to say whether the Chicago Restaurant Assn. gave him a $10,000 a-month job in the expectation that his underworld connections would help settle the dispute.

Chief Counsel Robert F. Kennedy commented that the strike was settled to the satisfaction of the restaurant chain involved. McClellan said he would be interested to see whether the Chicago Bar Assn. took any action against Champagne for pleading possible self-incrimination to such questions.

Plans are rather indefinite as to the date of the changeover but it was announced that the work will be done as quickly as possible with several weeks being involved in transforming the physical equipment.

The Turner-Farrar Association, in seeking a very high frequency channel, had applied for either Channel 3 or Channel 8.

Two Students Die In Auto Mishap

FULTON, Mo. (AP)—Two Westminster College students were killed Friday night when they were thrown from their auto after it left U. S. 54, 10 miles south of here.

The students, both 21, were William M. McDonough, Macomb, Ill., and Frederick F. Stenzel, Cairo, Ill. They were enroute from Jefferson City, Mo., to the college campus here when the car left the highway, state police said.

Troopers said the men were thrown from the car when it careened into a 10-foot ditch. Stenzel was killed immediately. McDonough died a short time later. It was not immediately established which of the students was operating the vehicle.

Fewer Applications for Jobless Pay

Decline in Layoffs

WASHINGTON (AP)—A high Labor Department official viewed with "guarded optimism" today a slight decline in layoffs among workers covered by unemployment compensation.

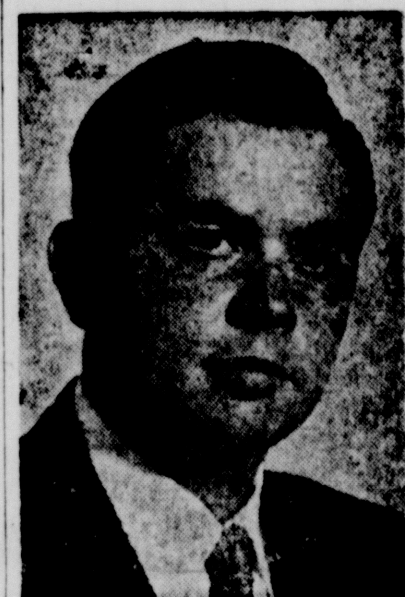

The department reported late Friday that the number of new jobless workers applying for unemployment benefits dropped by 29,900 to 410,500 last week.

This was the lowest number of new claims for any week since last December. This indicates fewer layoffs among the two-thirds of the nation's 60-million-man labor force covered by unemployment compensation.

Mt. Vernon Girl, 3, Dies in Fire

MOUNT VERNON, Ill. (AP)—Beulah Faye Davis, 3, was killed Friday night when a fire destroyed her parents' one-story house.

Cause of the blaze was not determined. Firemen said the little girl was at home with her father, Kenneth Davis, and her eight brothers and sisters when the blaze swept the building. The other members of the family escaped unhurt.

Authorities said a similar fire next door to the Davis home claimed another little girl's life last year.

Congressmen Accuse Agriculture Department of Burning Report

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress today was investigating the Agriculture Department's destruction of a report said to contain some bitter remarks by farmers about their economic plight.

Sen. William E. Proxmire (D-Wis.) accused the department of "book-burning."

But Assistant Agriculture Secretary Don Paarlberg, although confirming that 2,500 copies of the report were destroyed, refused to say whether they were burned.

"I don't think it's particularly relevant how they were destroyed," he told newsmen.

Paarlberg said the department "destroyed them all" when top officials discovered the report contained material of "questionable value." A new report omitting this material was published Feb. 13.

Chairman L. H. Fountain (D-N. C.) said his House Government Operations subcommittee may hold public hearings in an attempt to learn what the department "is trying to hide."

House Investigation Likely Fountain said the department has refused to give him a copy of the original report.

He said he doubted all copies have been destroyed, but Paarlberg insisted they were and said there were none left to give either congressional investigators or newsmen.

Staff investigators of the House Government Information subcommittee, headed by Rep. John E. Moss (D-Calif.), also are investigating. Fountain said if his subcommittee decides not to hold hearings, the Moss subcommittee may do so instead.

Paarlberg was asked whether publication of the deleted material would have been embarrassing to Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson.

"It could have been used by various people with various points of view," he replied.

According to one informant who saw the original report, it contained a summary of comments by farmers about the decline in farm population.

The comments were not one-sided but rather expressed varying opinions, the source said. He added that some comments were "bitter" and some were not.

The comments were selected by officials from answers received by the department to a questionnaire used in preparing the farm population report.

Paarlberg took personal responsibility for suppressing the original report. He said the deleted material was not based on an adequate sample, was of "questionable value," and "might be of the issue rather than clarify it."

He said it cost the department only $50.78 to print the revised report.

Agriculture Department officials said newsmen have sometimes been given access to similar documents in the past with the names of farmers who filled them out covered up to protect their identity.

Reporters asked Paarlberg if they could see the population questionnaires in question under the same conditions. He refused, saying it would be "inappropriate to drag those things out right now" and anyway he would "like to check the legal implications first."

Reports on Red Cross Fund Drive Made at Meeting of Chapter Board

The Saline County Red Cross Board met March 19 at which time Dick Davenport, chapter treasurer and fund drive chairman, announced the following township chairmen:

Harrisburg—Steve Starkey and Harold Parker; Eldorado—Bratcher Taylor assisted by John Murphy, chapter chairman; Carrier Mills—Ed Schreffler; Galatia—John Davis; Raleigh—Kenneth Henson; Stonefort—Eckert Ozmert; Cottage Grove—Lee Arthur Berry; Brushy

—Orval Hankins; Mountain and Independence—Frank Hamp is soliciting in both townships but assisting chairmen will be appointed for each township: Long Branch and East Tate—Egbert Tate and Raymond McVay; West Tate and Reeder chairmen will be announced later; Muddy—Ben Brinkley.

Mrs. Charles Skaggs and her committee have served for the past two weeks contacting every resident in Harrisburg who has a phone giving everyone a chance to pledge to the Red Cross drive. Solicitors will call at the homes from now until the end of March picking up the contributions. Mrs. Skaggs stated that repeated calls were made to some homes but could never get an answer. Everyone who was not called or who does not have a phone who wishes to contribute should either mail his contribution to the Red Cross office in Harrisburg or call the office and a worker will call for it.

The volunteer workers will be picking up the contributions from now on until the end of March. Each worker will have an official Red Cross folder and issue membership cards signed by the worker for all contributions of $1.00 or more. A Red Cross sticker and pin is left at the home for any size contribution. There will be one or more volunteers working on every street. Membership cards and winning stickers will be mailed to contributors mailing in their contributions to the office. Donations may be turned in to Steve Starkey and Harold Parker at the First National bank and Dick Davenport at the Harrisburg National bank.

Mrs. Walter Chunn, chapter public information chairman, announced that a benefit for Red Cross was being planned by the three chapters of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Russell Malan, blood program chairman, Mrs. B. F. Montgomery, donor recruitment chairman for Harrisburg, and Millard Lynch, member of the executive committee, made reports on the plans for the next bloodmobile visits in Saline county which will be Thursday, April 17, in Carrier Mills, and Friday, April 18, in Harrisburg. Mr. Lynch and the employees of the General Telephone Company have made the Red Cross telephone recruitment of donors and solicitation of contributions possible by their cooperation and participation in this community program.

Apprentice Lineman Is Fatally Injured

JERSEYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Tom Barkley, 37, Carlinville, an apprentice lineman, was killed Friday when a hydraulic boom used to place a pole into the ground came in contact with a 7,200 volt power line.

The accident occurred on a power line construction site four miles northeast of here. Barkley was an apprentice lineman for the MJM Electric co-operative.

He was given artificial respiration and taken to Jerseyville Community Hospital, where he was dead on arrival.

Chairman Wants Closed-Door Session to Wind Up FCC Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Oren Harris indicated today he wanted a closed-door session of his House investigating subcommittee to decide plans on winding up its investigation of the controversial Miami television channel award.

Harris (D-Ark.) would not say when his subcommittee would question Federal Communications Commission members about their votes on the disputed decision on Channel 10.

FCC commissioners were scheduled to appear this week, but the subcommittee spent five days questioning other witnesses and then adjourned until next week.

The Arkansas Democrat said the subcommittee definitely will question the FCC members on their votes in the Channel 10 case. But he declined to say whether the group would meet Monday.

At the subcommittee hearing Friday, attorney Paul A. Porter, who represented A. Frank Katzenline, an unsuccessful applicant for Channel 10, testified that subcommittee member Rep. Charles A. Wolverton (R-N. J.) once interested himself in an FCC television case.

Wolverton, who is sponsoring a "code of ethics" bill for the FCC and other agencies, said he did nothing wrong. He said it was perfectly proper for members of Congress to represent their constituents before government agencies.

Porter produced at the hearing a March 30, 1953, letter from Wolverton to Paul Walker, then FCC chairman. In it, Wolverton said he was "very much interested" in the request of South Jersey Broadcasting Co. for TV Channel 17 at Camden, N. J.

The congressman urged the FCC to consider the case at a hearing the following day and to grant the application "if a grant otherwise appears to be in the public interest."

The FCC awarded South Jersey a construction permit for the TV station in 1954. However, the station is not yet on the air.

Rev. O. E. Connnett, Former Methodist Minister Here, Dies

Rev. O. E. Connnett, 75, retired Methodist minister who was pastor of the First Methodist church in Harrisburg from 1927 to 1933 died at 7:15 in Flora Friday evening.

Rev. Connnett, had been ill for a considerable period of a heart ailment and other complications and had been in a hospital, but was at his residence when death occurred.

Mrs. Connnett is a sister of C. F. Brown and Mrs. N. C. Morris of Eldorado, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown visited in Flora Thursday reporting that Rev. Connnett at that time was in a critical condition.

Funeral arrangements will depend on whether a son, James, a chaplain with the U. S. Army stationed in Germany, may be able to return to the states.

Another son Orville is principal of one of the Peoria high schools.

Emergencies Declared In Two States

Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New England Face Flood Threats

By United Press
Floods threatened today to wash down the Atlantic Seaboard, still reeling from the one-two punch of a staggering snow storm and winds that flailed the area with near-hurricane velocity.

The brutal blast which outdid the worst offerings of a winter termed the worst in 20 years beat the arrival of spring by several hours and continued today with diminishing force. Snow depths at some points exceeded 48 inches, and drifted 6 feet high at others.

A United Press count showed at least 40 persons were killed in the storm, and the number appeared certain to rise.

Light snow continued to powder the northeastern quarter of the nation today, with three inches of new snow falling at Caribou, Maine, since Friday night.

The 18-inch snowfall at Trenton, N. J. Friday was proclaimed the worst since before the turn of the century, and states of emergency were declared in two of the 13 states affected by the storm.

Parts of Pennsylvania, New York and New England faced the threat of serious flooding. The Weather Bureau called the flood danger "well above normal for so late in the season" and lowland flooding of the Charles and Neponset Rivers in Massachusetts was probable this weekend.

Estimates of marooned persons ran into the thousands, and more than a million homes were left without heat, lights and telephone service during parts of the storm.

States of emergency existed in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. A restaurant on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near Reading served as a haven for a refugee train of some thousand persons caught in the snowfall. They were evacuated late Friday after bulldozers chewed through six-foot drifts and opened a passable route for a rescue convoy of trucks and buses.

The 74-mile-an-hour winds which lashed the seacoast created hazardous at sea where a disabled fishing vessel, "Carol and Estelle," rode out the storm behind a sea anchor.

Railroad and air travel was paralyzed. Hundreds of flights were cancelled along the seaboard and railroad crews on the Portsmouth to Boston run had to scamp for signal lights to brush away the wet snow.

Mt. Pocono in northeast Pennsylvania was covered by 40 inches of snow.

President Eisenhower was forced to call off a trip to West Point, N. Y. Dag Hammarskjold, secretary general of the U. N., had to postpone a flight to Moscow until 9:41 p. m.

Damage to the Bell Telephone Co. alone was estimated to be $1,500,000 by a company spokesman.

Two More Nuclear Tests by Russia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission announced Friday night that Russia has tested two more nuclear weapons — one relatively small and the other "in a large range."

The explosions were the seventh and eighth reported by the AEC since the current Soviet test series began Feb. 22.

Sheldon Van Horn of North Loup, Nebraska, who has been identified for a number of years
with one of the oldest popcorn day celebrations in history will be machine to provide thirty thousand bags of popcorn for the visitors to the North Loup celebration which occurs each September.

Jim Blevins of Popcorn Village, Nashville, Tennessee, visited this part of Nebraska during one of its blizzards and obtained a photo graph of a large sign which shows
just how North Loup, Nebraska, keeps their visitors advised of the popcorn days. The sign reads
"POPCORN DAYS North Loup, September 10-12."

North Loup uses their popcorn days as a homecoming and many people reserve these days to come home and enjoy the festivities of the occasion while returning to their former home.

Mr. Van Horn will contribute much to making the National Popcorn Farmers Day at Ridgway a big success.

Demonstration at SIU April 8 on Seedling Planting

CARBONDALE, Ill. — A forest tree seedling planting demonstration has been set for April 8 at the Southern Illinois University conservation demonstration farm (formerly the Grammer Farm) three miles southwest of Carbondale, according to Dr. Lowell R.
Tucker, SIU associate professor of plant industries and president of the Egyptian Soil Conservation Society.

The tree-planting demonstration
is one of a series of soil conservation practices which the organization is sponsoring on this rough farm land, a part of the SIU Experimental Farms. Also cooperating in the April 8 event are the University of Illinois and the U.
S. Soil Conservation Service.

A tree planter will be used in the demonstration. Activities will begin at 8:30 a. m. and continue throughout the day. The Egyptian chapter of the Soil Conservation Society will hold a brief business meeting during the noon hour.

SIU Country Column

By ALBERT MEYER
There are some brighter sides to the present gloom stories that are capturing some of the newspaper headlines, according to Walter J. Wills, agricultural marketing specialist at Southern Illinois University. Perhaps the situation may not be quite as good as it was the past year, at least in some areas of agriculture, but in general he foresees fairly steady conditions.

A quick look at the darker side of the picture has shown unemployment hitting a 16-year high of more than five million persons out of work while the cost of living and wages have been rising. Wills thinks that the inflation will be the dominant force. Actually, the number of unemployed amounts to less than six per cent of the total labor force.

Weather conditions have hindered many kinds of construction activity around the nation this winter.
Industrial expenditures for plant expansion are down, but indications are that spending for constructing private housing and public expenditures for schools, roads, churches, defense projects, and public housing will more than offset the decline in industrial expansion activity.

Foreign demand for U. S. products likely will be less than a year ago except for items under various kinds of government assistance programs. Many of the foreign countries are having economic problems more serious than this country.

However, it should be pointed out that U. S. agricultural exports amounted to a record-breaking $4-700,000,000 in the 1957 fiscal year, our nation supplying 22 per cent
of the world's agricultural exports.
The U. S. provided one-half of the world's trade in cotton, 80 per cent of the world trade in soybeans, 44 per cent in wheat, 20 per cent in rice, 36 per cent in seed grains, 80 per cent in lard, 78 per cent in tallow and grease, and 36 per cent of the world's canned deciduous food trade.

The largest buyers of United States farm products were the United Kingdom, Japan, West Germany, Canada, and the Netherlands. Substantial exports were made under government programs. Percentages of the total U. S. exports for various items under these programs were: wheat, 69 per cent; corn, 57; rice, 83; cotton, 43; tobacco, 11;
and edible oils, 37.

Shifting to the brighter side of the agricultural picture, Wills finds that industrial inventories are less than last year when production was exceeding consumption, and that the alarming rate of consumer credit expansion last year has been halted. Some of the debts are being repaid now and a new wave of buying expected. Federal Reserve banks have taken some steps to ease the money situation. Consumer incomes have been holding up well in spite of the above-normal rise in seasonal unemployment.

A late February report on the number of livestock on farms showed that the number of milk cows was down two per cent nationally from last year and five per cent in Illinois. Wills says milk prices may be down slightly from last year because of proposed lowering in support levels and the higher per-cow milk production.

Wills sees two relatively good years ahead for the farmer with a beef cow herd. Beef cow numbers are down two per cent nationally and one per cent in Illinois. A build up in breeding herds is indicated by the decline in slaughtering of cows and heifers during recent months. However, there may be some price pressures

next fall with the likelihood of heavier marketing of finished cattle and heavier supplies of hogs.

Prices of hogs did not decline as much this winter as they often do and likely will not go above recent levels before the usual spring decline starts. The summer high is expected in late June or early July.
Reports of the number of sows and gilts on farms on January 1 show an increase of five per cent over last year. This indicates moderate increases in spring farrowing of pigs.

Benson Orders Dairy Cuts As Scheduled

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional farm leaders who steered a bill to freeze farm prices through the House and Senate conceded today they don't have the votes to override an expected veto by President Eisenhower.

Prospects that the President will turn down the measure were strengthened by Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson's announcement late Friday that new lower price supports for dairy products will go into effect April 1—as scheduled.

The announcement came shortly after the Senate completed congressional action on the bill to freeze supports for one year at 1957 levels. In addition to canceling Benson's proposed price cuts this year, the measure if it becomes law would compel him to set planting allotments next year at not less than 1957 levels.

Seven senators—three Democrats and four Republicans—who had voted against an earlier Senate bill calling for an indefinite price freeze, switched and voted to approve the one-year House version.

But neither the 48 to 32 Senate vote nor the earlier 210 to 172 margin in the House came close to the two-thirds ratio needed to override a veto.

Babies Killed by Infection from Hospital Workers

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—More than half the pediatric workers in the county hospital here are carriers of an infection which killed 16 babies since Dec. 1, a hospital official revealed Friday.

All infected employees of the Houston-Harris County hospital are to be laid off until they can throw off the deadly staphylococcus bacteria.

A total of 81 babies, other than the 16 who died, and 21 mothers have been affected by the disease since Feb. 1. Dr. Martha Yow, head of the infectious disease division of the pediatrics department, said.

Dr. Yow said babies in the hospital have been divided into groups of those infected, those suspected of infection and those not infected. Doctors said normally healthy persons would not be noticeably affected by the bacteria and perhaps would not know they had it.

Investigation teams from the state and U. S. Health Department are examining all patients and personnel in the hospital in an attempt to trace the bacteria.

Child Dies After Drinking Creosote

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The 18-month-old son of a Springfield couple died late Friday at Memorial Hospital after drinking a half ounce of creosote, authorities reported.

Sangamon County Coroner W. C. Telford said the creosote was being used as a vaporizer for treatment of another child. The baby reached for the cup containing the creosote and drank it, he said.

The baby, William Delmar Myers, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Myers. Telford said an inquest will be held.

Dies at Metropolis

Mrs. Emma Irwin, 77, widow of the late W. B. Irwin and a resident of Metropolis, died at 9:15 p. m. Friday in the Massac Memorial hospital. She was the mother of W. C. Irwin of Golconda. The body is in the care of the Miller funeral home in Metropolis and funeral plans have not been completed.

MRS. HAROLD BERNs, second from left, smiles happily as she is told she is the winner of the Frigidaire electric dryer in the "21" game sponsored by the O'Keefe Lumber Co., Carrier Mills. Everyone was eligible to participate in the contest. There was nothing to buy and it was not necessary to be present to win. Freeman O'Keefe of the O'Keefe Lumber Co. stated approximately 1,200 took part in the game and declared "this was the most successful promotion we have had in our 20 years in business." The contest was promoted through the pages of the Harrisburg Daily Register. A large number of persons crowded into the store to witness the drawing at 5 p. m. Friday. From the left, Louis Green, Mrs. Berns, Norma Green and Phoebe Holmes, employed in the lumber company offices; Loren Dallas, manager of the lumber department; Freeman O'Keefe, manager of appliances department; Ruth Whitley, CIPS Service Representative, who demonstrated appliances during the three-day period of the game. It adds that duties were performed by Lane in the amount of $2,572, that the defendants refused to pay for the services. This amount plus interest, in the total sum of $3,000, is asked by Lane.

Ike Flies to Georgia for Golfing Trip

WASHINGTON (AP)—Good golfing weather lured President Eisenhower south today for a week end at one of his favorite vacation sites, the Augusta, Ga. National Golf Club.

He planned to fly to Augusta aboard the presidential plane Columbine III, returning late Sunday or Monday morning.

The President decided to go to Augusta late Friday after learning that mild weather was forecast there this week end. The forecast was for temperatures in the high 50s and low 60s and partially cloudy, but no rain or snow.

Bad weather, including snow this week, has kept the President off the golf course for some time. Bad traveling weather prevented him from flying to West Point, N. Y., for a reunion Friday with fellow military academy alumni at an award presentation lunch.

Mammal, Not Bird

The duck-billed platypus is classified as a mammal, not as a bird. It has a bill shaped like that of a duck and lays eggs instead of bearing its young, but it nurses its young with milk as do cows, dogs and other mammals.

Renshaw was a member of the First Baptist church when he lived in Harrisburg.

CHARLES L. WALL, MINISTER

GOD'S WAY AND MAN'S SUBSTITUTION
Col. 3:17

The Lord requires man to make the good confession before men. (Matt. 10:32-33) We see from these two passages the great importance of obeying His commandments. Christ said, "Whosoever shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven." It will mean the difference of being accepted or rejected in the final day.

There is only one confession required before baptism. (Acts 8:37) Here is an example of one confessing Christ. The Ethiopian Eunuch confessed, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." This is the good confession that we are to make today before being baptized into Christ. This is the confession that was made during the New Testament days.

Man's substitution is they confess feelings. "I believe that God for Christ's sake has pardoned me of my sins." Where is the example of this confession in the New Testament? It's not there, because God did not authorize it. We don't want to practice anything that the Law of Christ doesn't authorize.

Creal Springs Is 77 Years Old

By H. L. Molsinger

According to the Psalmist David, man lives on borrowed time after he passes his 70th year in life. Quote: "The days of our years are three score and ten; and if by reason of strength they be four score years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away." Psa. 90:10.

Hundreds have resided in Creal Springs and attained their 70th year in animate existence, and several have passed the 70th anniversary and lived on and on with God blessing them with this extended time, even one to our recollection passed the century mark before passing on.

An estimate count reveals that approximately one out of five or 20% of Creal Springs population of 864 has reached the age of borrowed time, 172 now age 70 and upwards to past 94. While about 96, or about 10% of Creal Springs population, is 77 and up. This percentage would have almost doubled from 70 up back in 1905 to 1912 when 116 Civil War vets were happily domiciled in Creal Springs in 1912. The wonder medical springs with all its healing elements from its well developed springs during this time was perhaps the main reason for so many living in the City of Wonder Waters on "Borrowed Time."

In 1881 Creal Springs originated as a village. The city of Creal Springs derived its name from Edward and Jasper Creal. Creal came from their names, and Springs from the numerous medical springs (about 100 located throughout the city later) noted for their miraculous healing qualities.

Approximately one inhabitant out of every ten in 1912 was a Civil War veteran. At present VFW Post No. 9763, Creal Springs, is the largest organization in the city, outside of the church, with upwards of 150 members.

Here is a brief reminiscence of

London "Presidents"
Statues of three American presidents are in London, England. They are those of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Matter of FACT

Probably never in the history of the world has there been a more brutal sport than the fights of the gladiators in ancient Rome, where armed men fought one another for the amusement of spectators. These battles grew out of an old Etruscan custom of setting slaves to fight each other as part of funeral rites. The practice was introduced into Rome in the year 264 B.C., at the funeral of Brutus Pera.

sketch of Jasper Creal that may prove interesting.

Jasper Creal was born in Cumberland County, Kentucky, June 4, 1832. He was reared on a farm in the Blue Grass State until 16 years of age. He came with his father, Elijah Creal, to the area woodlands, so called in pioneer days, and now Creal Springs, on Oct. 10, 1848, where his father died at the age of 62. His mother lived to the exact borrowed time age and passed to her reward at age 70.

Jasper Creal's brother, Edward, laid out the village of Creal Springs and died at the age of 56. He enlisted in the 6th Iowa Cavalry in 1861 and served 2½ years, but was discharged at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., April 10, 1864, by reason of a severe wound in a wrist received in the fight at Moscow, Tenn. He participated in the famous Grierson Raid in Baton Rouge, La., in which they spent sixteen days and nights of continuous riding and fighting.

His first wife was Nance Rich of Kentucky, to whom he was united in marriage, Oct. 13, 1862. She gave him three children. His wife died Oct. 13, 1887, six years after Creal Springs originated as a village. This was exactly 25 years to a day from her marriage. The following June he was married to Martha Rayal.

Mr. Creal was a very large man, vigorous, active, etc. He held no church membership and was a Democrat in politics.

CREAL SAILOR RETURNS FROM MEDITERRANEAN

Lawrence O. Johnson, seaman apprentice, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Johnson, Creal Springs, has arrived in Boston. He was aboard the USS Albany and returned from six months with the U. S. 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean.

During the six months cruise the Albany participated in fleet operations and NATO maneuvers. The Albany was de-missioned in Boston upon arrival, to be converted to a guided missile cruiser.

CREAL FARMER HONORED ON HIS 90th BIRTHDAY

About two score relatives and friends gathered at the home of Uncle Elijah Atwood Friday to celebrate his 90th birthday. Uncle "Lige," as he is often called, is a lifetime resident of Williamson county.

Little Danny Chamness, 4, was honored also for his birthday. Mrs. Guy Chamness baked the huge birthday cake and Mrs. Eliza Chamness beautifully decorated it with the attractive inscription, "Happy Birthday, Dear Grandpa." Attending from other places besides Creal Springs and vicinity were:

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Atwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Atwood, all of Peoria; Mrs. Sylvia Pulley and family, Guy and Floy Chamness, Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Chamness and three children, all of Marion. Little Danny was given the seat of honor beside his 90-year-old great-grandfather.

Meeting Tuesday At Eldorado On Egg Regulations

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Officials of the state Department of Agriculture will participate in five meetings in Illinois next week to further acquaint farmers and dealers with recent egg law changes. Anyone interested in new egg regulations is urged to attend.

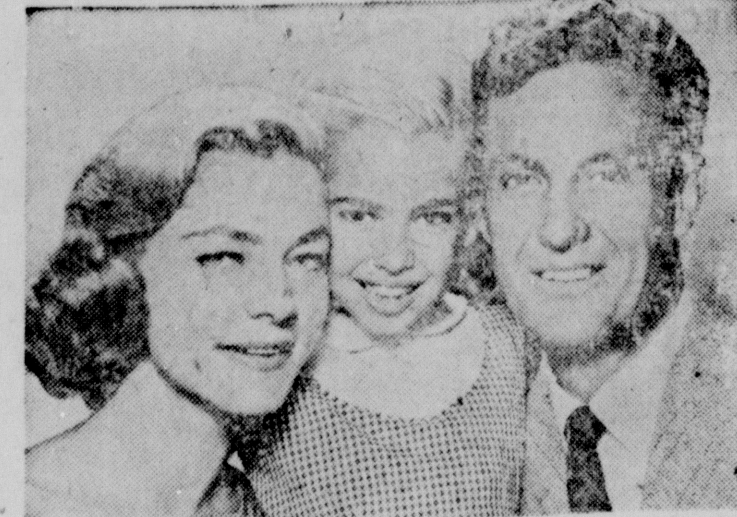

J. R. Harris, marketing specialist, and Harry Fulkerson, chief of egg law enforcement, will preside over the meetings at the following places:

Monday, March 24, West Salem high school, West Salem, 7 p. m.
Tuesday, March 25, Eldorado high school, Eldorado, 7 p. m.

Wednesday, March 26, Farm Bureau building, Marion, 7:30 p. m.
Thursday, March 27, Edwardsville National bank, Edwardsville, 7:30 p. m.

Main feature of the new regulations is that eggs must be kept at 60 degrees or below from the time they are candled or graded for retail sale until they reach the consumer.

Egg quality will also be stressed in the discussions which will be highlighted by demonstrations and use of slides. Candling lights and eggs will be provided so that those in attendance may give candling and grading a personal try.

Lauren Bacall, Evelyn Rudie and Robert Stack co-star in the 20th Century-Fox CinemaScope and color hit, "The Gift of Love," to show at the Grand Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

BYEBYE BUSS—It's goodbye, but only for a while as U. S. Army Pfc. Robert Hibbins kisses his 2-year-old daughter Betty Ann. She and her mother are leaving New York aboard the liner Berlin for Germany where they'll meet daddy when he's transferred by plane.

'The Church and World Evangelism'

Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 13:1-3;
Romans 1:14-18

GOLDEN TEXT: "Go ye there fore, and teach all nations, bap tizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." (Matt. 28:19)

INTRODUCTION — The world is the field of evangelism. In last week's Sunday School lesson we found evangelism could be effec tive in our homes and in our com munities.

Each church has a responsi bility toward every lost person in its community. As long as there is one lost person in the community in which you live, your church family is still responsible for tak ing the gospel to that one.

We are, also, responsible for tak ing the gospel into all the world.
If there were only one lost soul
left in all the world, and that one were in the heart of darkest Africa,
it would still be worth all the ef fort and money of every church in the world to win that one soul to Christ. Jesus says that one soul is worth more than the "whole world."

Let us see what His great Com passion for you and me has to say in THE GREAT COMMISSION
(Matt. 28:18-20)

Jesus has given the command to all his followers to evangelize
the world. This is made possible, not because of our power and strength, but because He has "all power in heaven and in earth."
It is as we go in His name that we are given the spiritual power to witness for him. It is actually Jesus working through us by the power of the Holy Spirit.

The real reason Christians have not already evangelized (or won) the whole world for Christ is that so very few are keeping in close touch with Him and His power daily. He is the one who "sends men forth into the harvest." He is the one who endues with pow er from on high.

Jesus commands His followers
to "go into all the world and teach all nations and baptize them in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost. He further commands that we are to teach the new con verts to "observe all things what soever he has commanded. Then

Youth - BY THE DRAWFUL

In a nation as big as ours there is always a tendency to overlook the individual and to think only of groups. Youth gets the brunt of this generalizing.

About three percent of our boys and girls are delinquent. But some folks would have us believe that every child is a potential de linquent.

Time we realized that children aren't chicks! They don't grow up by the drawful to have the same characteristics and habits.
Children respond to love, parental example, religious guidance. They possess an ever increasing aptitude for responsibility, trust,
and faith.

Most of our boys and girls will grow up to assume their rightful place in an orderly, Christian society. Some will populate our jails. But the destiny of the individual youth is not a matter of chance and percentage...

It is determined primarily by the conscien tiousness of loving parents, and by the per sistency with which his natural religious in terests are cultivated.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest fac tor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values.
Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and sup port the Church. They are: (1)
For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and mat terial support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

eternal hell. He has blessed our

to all man-kind everywhere to tell

Paul knew in his heart that the serious thinking about that state

HOW TO DO A JOB—There are two ways to put a ball club together in the spring. Take the Phillies. At left, Kerby Farrell, the new Miami manager who works with the Phillies during training at Clearwater, Fla., gives Harry Anderson, converted outfielder, lessons in how to play first base, the lineup's open spot. If teaching fails, you can make a deal over which Roy Hamey, at right, general manager, and Manager Mayo Smith huddle.

Rock Falls, Peoria Spaulding, Aurora West, Chicago Play Today In Semifinals of State Tournament

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Can Chicago Marshall's unbeaten Commanoes, conquerors of defending champion Herrin, become the first Chicago team ever to win the state high school basketball title?

Or will Rock Falls, which wrote a new team scoring record into the books Friday, take home the trophy?

Or will Peoria Spaulding or Aurora West be able to spring an upset?

Those were the questions remaining to be answered in Huff Gym here today and tonight as the 1958 state tournament sped toward its climax.

Only the four red lights of Rock Falls, Marshall, Spaulding, and Aurora West still flashed today on the big state map hanging in the gym here.

Rockets, Marshall Favorites

Tonight only one, that of the 1958 state champion, still will flash. Two things are sure, it will be a new champion and the title will move north.

Rock Falls and Marshall were counted the favorites to be on hand when the trophies are handed out tonight. But this tournament has already proved once again that a favorite's role is a tough one.

Rock Falls tangles with Peoria Spaulding in the first game and Marshall meets Aurora West in the second game on this afternoon's semifinal program.

The two losers meet in tonight's first game for third place, and then the tournament comes to its climax with the final game between the two afternoon winners.

Rock Falls came here as one of the favorites of the crowd. But Marshall earned its spurs by thumping Herrin, last hope of southern Illinois, and thus assuring that the title will move at least as far north as Peoria.

Marshall, sparked by 6-6 sophomore center George Wilson, defeated Herrin, 72-59, to rack up their 28th straight victory without defeat. They are bidding also to become the fourth perfect record team in state high school basketball history.

Rockets Set Records

Rock Falls set a new single game team scoring mark and three other records fell as the Rockets crushed Danville Schlarmann, 101-76, in the quarter-final opener.

Then Spaulding topped Highland, 58-49, and Aurora West ran away from Springfield, 59-48, to complete the semifinal field.

The day's action began as Rock Falls ran off to a quick 7-1 lead, at which point both teams threw defense to the winds and began to tattoo the opposition's backboard with a steady barrage.

When the attack subsided, Rock Falls' Ken Siebel had poured in 33 points, followed by teammates Jim Cain, 17, Gary Kolb, 16, and Dan Johnson, 15.

Defeated Schlarmann, however, saw guard Jerry Kuemmerle break the old individual mark of 40 points in a single game by gathering 49. The Rockets' 101 points was a new tournament high as was the combined total of 177 points for the two teams.

Kuemmerle, who tallied 17 field goals, also broke the old record of 16 for a single tournament game.

Akins, Logart, Handlers are Summoned to Grand Jury Hearing

NEW YORK (AP)—Tapped telephone conversations that preceded Virgil Akins' surprise sixth-round kayo victory over Isaac Logart Friday night will be featured evidence at a Manhattan Criminal Court grand jury hearing, April 7.

Bible-reading Akins, who clinched a June shot at the vacant world welterweight title, has been summoned to appear at the hearing, along with Logart, their handlers and seven others.

Those summoned included Billy Brown, matchmaker of the International Boxing Club, which staged the scheduled 12-round elimination semifinal at Madison Square Garden.

Akins, St. Louis, an 11-5 underdog at ring time, floored Cuban Logart twice, gashed his right brow and won a technical knockout at 2:53 of the sixth round.

Logart Support Heavy

It was his second victory over Logart in their three fights and clinched for Virgil a final 15-round match with Vince Martinez, Pateron, N. J., for the vacant 147-pound crown on June 6 probably at St. Louis or Los Angeles. Carmen Basilio abandoned the welter title last September when he became middleweight champion.

Logart was heavily supported by the run-of-the-mill bettors, including New York's Latin-American colony. And the price favoring him lengthened from 7-5 to 11-5 Friday night. But there were persistent rumors that the "smart money" was coming in fast for Akins.

It was learned later that heavy betting was on distance—whether the fight would go 12 rounds as scheduled. Rookies willing to bet the fight would go the distance put up $1 to every $3 wagered by bettors believing the fight would be stopped. Bettors willing to wager the fight would go 12 rounds put up $4 to the bookies' $1 that it wouldn't.

Each weighed 145½ pounds.

At the end of five rounds of interesting competition, Logart was leading 4-1 on the score cards of all three ring officials. But in the sixth, a right-left combination dropped him.

He was up at the count of five and took the mandatory eight-count on his feet. Then a right to the chin sat him on the lower strand of the ring ropes for another knockdown, from which he was up at six and took eight on his feet.

Having risen, bloody Ike was being battered unmercifully on the ropes when Referee Harry Kessler stopped the fight. The knockdowns appeared legitimate, and Akins' victory in the nationally televised bout was cheered by the 5,000 Garden spectators.

Victorious Akins, a former "in-and-out" who had hung up his gloves three times, was just telling reporters in the dressing room that Bible-reading had spurred his comebacks, when a grand-jury summons was slipped into his hand.

A spokesman for District Atty. Frank Hogan's office said "at least a dozen summons" had been served. But he insisted that those served at the Garden were "principally in connection with an investigation of boxing that has been going on for some time." He admitted "they may have something to do with last night's betting, but that would be secondary."

However, another authoritative source told the United Press, "unfortunate telephone conversations among persons connected with Akins and Logart—conversations tapped by investigators" caused the shower of summons. He said the tapped evidence will be used at the grand jury hearing, with permission of the New York Supreme Court.

BRING ON THAT SOO SOUTHERN CLIMATE—A snow-covered net and temperatures in the 30's confronted these Southern Illinois University tennis players as they took their final warmups before departing for an exhibition tour of the South. Pictured are captain Jim Jarrett, left, Decatur; letterman Jerry Gruen, Granite City; and Arnie Cabrera, newcomer from Santurce, Puerto Rico. Southern will pull double duty today, meeting both Hardin-Simmons University, Border Conference champions last year, and East Texas State, undefeated in 24 dual matches in 1957. SIU will play at Texas Christian University Monday and University of Oklahoma Tuesday. (SIU Photo Service)
